

UJAH Review Essays Submission Checklist

Eligibility

- ☐ You are a current undergraduate student at the University of British Columbia
- ☐ You are writing about a recent exhibition, publication, film, or performance--ideally less than 6 months in the past. Writing on works that have been shown or published locally are strongly encouraged.
- ☐ Review does not have to be written for a class; however, it should be unpublished (both online and in print)
- ☐ Please remove your name from within the paper/files submitted. All entries are judged blind. Entries containing the name of the author will be removed from consideration.

Submission Specifications

- ☐ Maximum 2 entries per person
- ☐ Provide your year, faculty, major/minor, as well as info about the event or publication (i.e., title, location, run-time/date, curator/director/artist/author, date attended) in body of email
- ☐ Minimum 500, maximum 1500 words in length; 12pt, double-spaced
- ☐ No bibliography required
- ☐ Label all files and images: "Your_Name_Title".docx (e.g. Jane_Doe_Modernity.docx)

Image Specifications

- ☐ At least one high-resolution image is recommended, to be published alongside your review.